Tammie serves as a senior search partner with over 16 years of experience recruiting across a variety of industries. She collaborates with companies on executive searches as well as specialized niche roles, and is a trusted partner to organizations seeking top-tier leadership talent. Her background spans both Fortune 500 companies and premier staffing agencies, giving her a comprehensive understanding of the evolving demands of executive recruitment across industries and organizational sizes.

Tammie's strength lies in navigating complex, high-stakes hiring initiatives with a strategic, relationship-centered approach. She asks the right questions to uncover what truly matters to both candidates and hiring leaders – from leadership style and cultural alignment to long-term vision and organizational impact. Whether leading C-suite, VP, or other senior-level searches, Tammie's focus remains clear: to deliver transformative talent that drives business growth and long-term success.
