As a managing director, CJ provides her clients with business advisory and CFO expertise. CJ is recognized as an advocate for business in Hampton Roads. She chairs the Association for Corporate Growth's "757" Network leading the regional chapter's efforts to drive middle-market growth through networking and programming. CJ is also an active mentor with the 757 Start Up Studios and 757 Accelerator where she enjoys sharing her entrepreneurial exposures from the San Francisco area with passionate start-up founders in Hampton Roads.

CJ holds a Bachelor of Science in Accounting and Finance from the University of Virginia and a Master of Science in Taxation from Golden Gate University. In addition to her CPA certifications in both Virginia and California, she holds a certificate in financial management from Cornell University and a certificate in commercial real estate analysis and investment from the MIT Center for Real Estate.
