Austin distinguishes himself as an accomplished Accounting Consultant by prioritizing his clients' needs and diligently enhancing financial efficiencies through adept process improvement and robust controls. His expertise spans a broad spectrum of accounting functions, encompassing journal entries, acquisitions, account reconciliation, and comprehensive financial reporting on a monthly, quarterly, and yearly basis.

His journey in accounting and business analysis began in the real estate sector, where he gained invaluable insights into property management, development, construction, and condo management. Transitioning to private equity, Austin strategically applied his prowess in process improvement and time management to oversee the entire finance department during a pivotal transitional period for the company. Throughout this experience, he internalized the significance of proactivity as a personal business mantra. His commitment to delivering tangible results and his diverse skill set underscore his effectiveness as a dedicated professional in the field of accounting and financial consulting.
