With a diverse background across multiple industries, Jill helps clients confront their most challenging finance and accounting issues. She has experience in almost every area of corporate finance, including GL accounting, financial reporting, investor relations, and strategy. Her goal-oriented, positive attitude makes her an asset to any team.

Jill began her career in a Finance Development Program, which fostered her leadership abilities from the onset of her career. After building a foundation in accounting, she moved on to more analytical functions such as investor relations and commercial strategy. She has worked at organizations of all sizes, from Fortune 500 to small boutique firms. Her combination of technical accounting and strategic analysis makes her a versatile asset to clients.
